ROME IN ARGUMENT

Or Brickbats Against Free Speech.

(To the Editor of The Interior Journal.) Kindly permit me to once more express my views of recent events to the intelligent readers of your valuable paper. Slatterly, the ex-priest, and his wife, the ex-nun, are beyond the shadow of a doubt traitors to their religion and false to their oaths.

Americans do not like traitors wellenough to place much confidence in their utterances. Hence if the followers of Rome had been possessed of the true American spirit, they would have treated with dignified silence the attempts of Slatterly and wife to disclose the already well-known secrets of the confessional and the convent. But the followers of a Dago Pope, who never in his life breathed a breath of free air or spoke a word for liberty, are not, and can not be Amer. ican in spirit. Hence their only answer to free speech is brickbats, their only ar gument for their church, dynamite bombs and the boycott.

To be Roman Catholic is to be superstitious; to be superstitious is to be ignorant; to be ignorant is to be cowardly and brutal, and the riot at Savannah, Ga., is the logical outcome of unrestrained lawlessness, which has been winked at for years by the daily press and the unprincipled politicians for the sake of the solid vote which this ignorant but powerful mob can give.

Rome does not like free speech, free schools, nor free governments, and she has said so, and her actions do not belie her words. How much longer shall we help her to control this home of the brave and land of the free by casting our votes for Catholic candidates of any party for positions of power and trust.

Much as we may despise that unAmercan and cowardly but chosen weapon of Rome, the boycott, let us learn to fight the devil with his own fire until these people shall have learned once for all that the divine injunction to love thy neighbor as thyself, is not exemplified by the use of rotten eggs, brickbate, dynamite bombs or boycotts.

S. W. PETTIBONE. American Citizen.

Bobbitt Wont tell till May. To the Editor of the Interior Journal. STANFORD, March 7.-It is generally understood that I was to speak in Stanford next Monday (county court day) aud would probably announce myself as a candidate for the Legislature. During circuit court I have had great encouragement to do both. I am well aware, however, that such is the political chaos of parties in this county now, that no one can tell whether a harpoon launched into the political ocean would strike a democratic or republican representative for Lincoln county next November. I am lso aware that my expected candidacy is suspended like the sword of Damocles over the heads of several aspirants, repressing their vaulting ambition. I know also that Lazarus is not dead but only sleepeth, and that an application of the galvanic battery of eloquence to the apparent corpse of his departed glory, would cause it immediately to spring to horn would be worth a 1,000 men. But I shall take the matter under consideration till May county court, when I shall address the people of Lincoln county upon free silver, free pikes and in the language of the Code of Practice shall make such additional remarks by way of rejoinder and sur-rejoinder, rebuttal and sur-rebuttal as the occasion may require. FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

He Was Doing Well.

Jack Negly was one of the mountaineers of the Cumberland whom I had known better perhaps than any of them, for Jack had borrowed a few dollars from me to buy a yoke of steers with, and the number of times he came to me to get the debt renewed brought me into very close acquaintance with him. He was a farmer in a small way, and he was never known to be out of debt. He was a renter, and at least every other season he was occupying a different farm. By my advice he had moved the year before into an entirely new field at least a dozen miles from his usual haunts, and I had not seen him for sev eral months. When I did see him at last, it was by accident, as business called me into his neighborhood. As I rode past his place he hailed me from D. the cornfield and came out to the fence. "Hello," I exclaimed, "is this your farm?" "Yes, and I jist come over to tell you, colonel, that I'll be ready to pay part of that claim uv yourn afore

"You must be doing well." "I think I'm doin fust rate, and I'm powerful obleeged to you, colonel, fer adin me this away

"I'm always glad to help if I can." "I knowed that, colonel, and that's why I come away over here so fer frum home. Hit's kinder strange to me, but ez long ez I'm doin ez well ez I am I'm a-goin to stand hit."

"Are you making any money?" Jim's face brightened perceptibly "No, I ain't, colonel, " he replied hope-its feet. That one blast upon his bugle fully, "but I'm losin it slower'n I ever done in my life afore." It struck me as rather odd at first, but upon more mature reflection I concluded that Jim might have reason for his hopefulness. - Detroit Free Press.

Tobogganing.

Persons who desire to toboggan should be a little careful at first. You should never sit down on a toboggan slide unless there is a toboggan under you. There are numerous perils connected with toboggan. If there is no slide handy, you can get a pretty good idea of one of them by stepping on a piece of soap at the head of the stairs. In some parts of the country it is killing off the people as effectually as the suffered so. I bet my wife $20 that it deadly car stove, and it has been suggested that the deadly car stove should be loaded on the toboggan and both should be shoved down the slide into the lower depths of innocuous desuetude. Something of the kind is hinted at in the following poetic gem:

Little Willie had a toboggan That was turned up at the bow. Upon the slide two did collide. Willie's pants are vacant now.

Didn't Like It.

"Daubs is as mad as hops about his picture that was on exhibition."

"Wasn't it noticed?" "Yes, took a prize." "What's he mad about then?" "Well, it was a picture of cows, and it was awarded the prize for the best picture of sheep. "-Tit-Bits.

The Usual Difference.

Lady-I see you advertise "good" butter, "fine" butter, "extra" butter, 'best' butter and "gilt edged" butter. What is the difference?

New Boy (not very well trained)-Th' "gilt edged" butter is fit to eat. The rest isn't. -Good News.

Dehorn Your Cattle.

I will go to any place where there are six or more cattle to cehorn. I do the work with the Lightning Dehoruer. Can dehorn any cow in three seconds. The knife makes a clean, smooth cut, does not crush nor break the horn, as the clipper does. It is the only humane way to dehorn. Does not punish the animal like the saw, and the wound gets well as quick again as that made by the saw. For further information, call on G. A. PEVTON, Stanford, Ky. See the Lightning Pruning Hook.
